Spring Term Issue 4

Letter from the Head

Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope you are all well.

Staffing update:

Firstly, my apologies to the parents of Y1 for not communicating who would be replacing Mrs Watson sooner. I had every intention to notify you in due course, however due to one or two 'behind the scenes' factors, things ran away with me. The good news is, year 1 are continuing to shine and I can report Mrs Vivian and Mr Daniel are doing a sterling job. The children are as happy as ever.

Year 3 parents. I can confirm that Mrs Button will be starting her maternity after half term. She will be in on the Tuesday after half term (Tue 24th Feb - and this will be her last day). We have been working behind the scenes to get a smooth transition in place, and what I am very excited to be able to inform you now, is that Miss Roberts has agreed to lead the year 3 class for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday every week. Miss Roberts is currently training to be a teacher and, in a nutshell, - she is amazing. The Monday and Tuesday are still being finalised. I will hopefully have some news for you soon, however those of you that know me, will know how picky I am with regards to teaching staff here... I never rush into decisions, and it sometimes takes a little longer to get the right person. But please rest assured - it is being worked on as we speak. Year 3 will receive their mid-year school reports slightly earlier as we felt it would be best coming from Miss Button. These will be distributed to parents at an earlier date compared to the rest of the school, so do not worry if you have siblings and you only get year 3's reports.

That is all from me this week. I am pleased to say that January is very nearly over ...

It has felt a little like the longest and wettest month EVER known, but we've made it. Have a great weekend all and we look forward to seeing you on Monday.

Kind regards

Kieran Walsh
