Letter from the Head

Dear Parent and Carers

Wow!! What a week... It has been so lovely to see so much activity going on. We obviously deliver a great PE curriculum, however, in Sports week we take it to the next level. On Monday we had a British Champion dance teacher in all day; Tuesday we had a professional cricket coach in; Wednesday was of course a very hot sports day; Thursday saw former pupil and professional footballer, Zak Baker, back in and today we have had a professional rugby league player from Cornwall RLFC here delivering rugby sessions on the field (bit of a plug for them - they are playing a match this Sunday, 1p.m, at Penryn). There has also been so much great stuff that the teachers, friends and volunteers have been delivering, i.e. cheerleading etc. In addition, we have had 'Healthy Schools Cornwall' in too - educating the children about food choices and sugar content. It has been brilliant. A massive thank you to all of the above-mentioned people, and of course yourselves for coming and supporting us where you could. It's been so lovely to see the children trying new things and pushing themselves. I said it on Wednesday, but I really am incredibly proud to be the headteacher here - the children are awesome!!

Thank you all again for the support and lovely feedback - we really appreciate it. Have a fantastic weekend and we will see you on Monday.

Kind regards

Kieran Walsh

Random fun fact of the week!

The Very Hungry Caterpillar book was published 55 years ago in 1969.

It is still a favourite book and sells roughly one copy per minute!
