Letter from the Head

★ Dear Parent and Carers,

Just a very short one this week.

It has been so lovely to see so many of you this week. If you have yet to make a appointment with your class teacher, please get in touch with us asap. We will do whatever we can to accommodate you.

I apologise for my lack of presence on the school gates in the mornings these past two weeks, I really hope to be back in full swing (ish) next week - fingers crossed. On a personal note, I would like to thank you all for the kind messages and well wishes I have received. It was so heartwarming to return to school and see so many happy faces. All of the staff have gone above and beyond, as usual, and of course the children were just amazing. So thank you to everyone.

So as I say, a very short one this week - I hope to see you all in person next week. Have a great weekend all.

Kind regards

Kieran Walsh

Random fun fact of the week!

Monkeys can go bald in old age, just like humans.

Other than humans, only three other mammals are known to experience pattern baldness like we do: the stump-tailed macaque, a primate that lives in Asia, and two dog species, the dachshund and the greyhound.
