Spring term issue 10

Letter from the Head

Dear Parents and Carers,

A short one from me this week. I will follow this up with an email on Monday so as everyone gets the information, but it is in relation to inset days next year. This year, to hopefully assist families with holidays, I have put two inset days either side of the October half term i.e. one at the start on the Friday 24th Oct, and one at the end on the Monday 3rd Nov. We have also grouped the days together at the end of July, so our actual last school day will be Friday 17th July.

To have made this possible, all the teaching staff will be returning to work one day earlier, during the summer holiday to carry out staff training, so as that children can start back to school on the first official day back, the Wednesday 3rd September. Hopefully, all of these things will help you to book cheaper holidays, as this year we have seen our attendance figures significantly fall. This fall really does hit the school hard for several reasons and has both a negative impact on data for the school and more importantly the individual children's learning. In addition, it will hopefully help working parents with childcare issues as well. So please keep a look out for Monday mornings email which will have all the inset dates listed.

That is all from me this week... I hope you all enjoyed the sunshine on Thursday. Fingers crossed it is a taster of things to come. Have a great weekend and we look forward to seeing you all on Monday.

Kind regards

Kieran Walsh
